

Educator's Link

Connecting educators with curriculum-related programs and resources

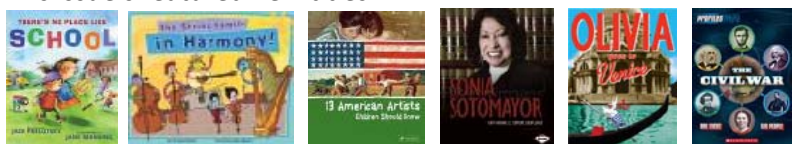

Our mission is to provide you with information about the Carlsbad City Library's extensive programs and resources. Direct links to the Library's catalog, calendar and databases will be especially useful to teachers and their students.

Our Collection

March is National Youth Art and Music in Our Schools Month, National Women's History Month, and Dr. Seuss' birthday, just to name a few curriculum tie-ins. April, of course, is School Library Media Month, National Poetry Month, and National Humor Month. There is plenty to celebrate and we have the resources to help you in your classroom! As always, our staff is eager to help your students find the information they need as well as to provide recommendations for personal reading.

Premium Web Resources

The Carlsbad City Library subscribes to a wide assortment of premium web resources (online databases) which you can access from home or your classroom. Check out the selection @ <http://www.carlsbadca.gov/services/departments/library/research>

This month's featured database is of special interest to high school guidance counselors and their students:

With more than $41 billion in scholarship awards, students are sure to find help for college, along with career personality tests, financial aid and detailed college and career information.
